

Goals ! Strategies ! Action!

Day: Thursday, November 19, 2009
Session: 10:45 am – Noon
Room: Saguaro

Presenters:

Terry Strayhand – Terry.Strayhand@azed.gov
Title I Program Specialist - Parent Involvement Coordinator

Session Description:

This session will primarily address innovative ways of developing strategies which support how districts and schools will promote the involvement of parents in the education of their children. The second phase of this workshop will discover ways to "move into action" and establish working teams to meet the objectives of the goals and strategies.

How the session addresses Innovation:

Participants will learn to go beyond the ordinary ways of planning for parent involvement activities and develop effective strategies which will impact the involvement of parents in schools.

Presenter Information:

Terry Strayhand, MS, was a teacher and administrator in the areas of special education and early childhood. Currently she is an Education Program Specialist at the Arizona Department of Education, where she works with school districts and charter schools regarding Title I and Parent Involvement programs.
